What is Ramadan?

Every year, muslims* around the world fast for one full month.

This fasting month is called Ramadan.

During Ramadan, muslims can only eat and drink between sunset and sunrise.

断じきをする

In Indonesia, Ramadan is celebrated not only by Muslims, but also people from other religions.

Ramadan then...

Usually, during Ramadan, people go out to buy food like kolak pisang and *es blewah in the afternoon.

Sometimes we also meet our friends and eat dinner together.

KOLAK PISANG

Kolak pisang is a mix of banana slices, sweet potato slices, and coconut milk.

It is the most famous food during Ramadan.

We eat it right when the sun sets.

ES BLEWAH

Es blewah is similar to fruit punch. We like to drink it with ice when the weather is hot.

...and now.

This year, we cannot go out to crowded*
places anymore, so we buy food online and eat dinner at home.

FOOD DELIVERY

We use mobile phone applications (similar to Uber Eats) to order food.

The most famous applications are Go-food and Grab-food.

We can choose food and drinks from any restaurant!

Some restaurants provide special food or drinks during Ramadan.
